OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFFS MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

ERIC REISNER, Defendant

ne
On February 23, 2019, Plaintiff filed a Motion For Default Judgment.

Plaintiff continues to defame Defendant and make claims without disseminating all material facts. There is not much of a case without an originally signed contract between the parties, which Defendant believes to be pertinent to his defense regarding Personal Jurisdiction and the Statute of Limitations. Plaintiff was made keenly aware that Defendant does not have significant financial resources, his mother was ill which made it near impossible to travel for court hearings and that he was not in possession of any documents that Plaintiff didn't already have in his possession or knowledge of people involved that Plaintiff didn't already know.

Defendant urges the Court to dismiss the plaintiff's case. At the Case Management Conference on February 26, 2019 The Court directed Plaintiff Carl Wescott to "provide all pertinent documents, especially those related to breach of contract, to Defendant Eric Reisner, by March 15, 2019". Defendant has not received such documents.
